Statement of Purpose

Definitions and Interpretation

In the Statement of Purpose, the following definitions and interpretations apply:

- The word Client(s) also means Service User(s)
- Words using the singular include the plural
- Words using the masculine gender only include the feminine gender

1. Aims and Objectives

Acquire Care Ltd. supplies helpful and friendly care to adults who need support and help to live in their own homes. All the care packages are tailored to the Client's needs with the aim to enhance independence.

It is Acquire Care Ltd.'s policy to always listen to the needs and wishes of the Client, both at the initial assessment and then at regular reviews. In this way the Client is actively involved in creating the care package that is required.

Acquire Care Ltd. provides services in the home of the Client whenever required and in the manner requested. Every care plan is fully adaptable to meet the ever-changing needs of the Client.

No detail is too small to warrant a change. It is realised that the small attentions to detail are important to Clients and therefore it is essential that all wishes and preferences of Clients are noted and considered. Acquire Care Ltd. develop the care plans to be outcome driven and therefore are created with flexibility to suit the individual. Acquire Care Ltd.'s policies and procedures are written in compliance with the Health and Social Care Act 2008, the Care Act 2014 and the Care Quality Commission's Essential Standards of Quality and Safety. At all times, Acquire Care Ltd. believes that the rights of the Client are paramount.

2. Nature of the Services Provided

3. Support Objectives

All people who are supported by or work at Acquire Care Ltd. and all people who visit will be treated with respect at all times.

- The aim is to offer skilled care to enable people who the Company support to achieve their optimum state of health and well-being.
- To uphold the human and citizenship rights of all who are supported or work for the Company.
- Individual choice and personal decision-making are the right of all Clients and will be supported by all the people who work for the Company.
- The right of independence will be respected and encouraged for all Clients.
- The individual uniqueness of Clients and visitors will be recognised and they will be treated with dignity and respect at all times.
- The individual requirement for privacy will be respected at all times and all information relating to individuals will be treated in a confidential manner.
- To recognise the individual need for personal fulfilment and aim to offer individualised programmes of meaningful activity to satisfy the need of Clients.

Therapeutic Activities

Acquire Care Ltd. has a policy of promoting the maintenance of Clients' normal social networks and social activities. The Client's Care Plan includes a facility for recording life history, social networks and contacts as well as the preferences for activities and hobbies in order that the Client is offered access to those networks and activities which are appropriate and desired.

Clients' Privacy

Records will be designed, used and stored so as to assure privacy. Legislative controls over records, such as the GDPR and the Data Protection Act, will be adhered to, and the Client's explicit permission in writing will be sought before information is passed to any person other than those directly concerned with the care of the Client.

Clients' Dignity

Dignity is a matter of prime importance to the Company and all staff receive training in this area. Clients will be asked for the name by which they wish to be addressed and this name will be recorded on the Client's Plan and used by all staff. Clients are perfectly entitled to ask that the principal carers use one name and others use another name. The level of familiarity is under the Client's control. In the absence of information to the contrary, staff will address the Client formally, using their title and surname.

Staff are trained to be sensitive to Clients' feelings when in company.

The Company seeks to reduce any feelings of vulnerability which Clients may have as a result of disability or illness.

6. Making a Complaint and Giving Compliments

It is believed that complaints and compliments are a valuable indicator of the quality of the service and an opportunity to improve that quality. Acquire Care Ltd. assure Clients that no-one will be victimised for making a complaint and it is encouraged that Clients instigate the complaints procedure whenever it is felt that this is necessary. It is not wished to confine complaints to major issues. Clients should comment when relatively minor matters are a problem to them, such as receiving cold food, being kept waiting without explanation or being spoken to in a manner that they do not like. It is the policy that all matters which disturb or upset a Client should be reported, recorded, and corrective action should be taken. Only in that way can we work towards meeting our aim of continuously improving our service. It is also good for the staff to be informed when their work has been appreciated.

The commitment is that:

- All complaints will be taken seriously
- All complaints will be acted upon with fairness and impartiality
- Clients are entitled to involve an impartial third party in the complaint procedure if they so wish

Please inform Acquire Care Ltd. of your complaints or concerns first. However, Clients and their representatives may take their complaints to persons in authority outside the Company. For Clients funded all or in part by Social Services or the Primary Care Trust, complaints may be directed to them. For privately funded clients, a range of advocacy services are available locally and they will be happy to help you deal with the complaint.

The Local Government & Social Care Ombudsman (LGO) will not usually investigate a complaint until the provider has had an opportunity to respond and resolve matters.

A serious concern can also be raised by contacting the Oxfordshire Safeguarding Adults Board.

In the event of a serious issue and complaint, the CQC can be contacted as well as Acquire Care Ltd.
